

transition (n) transição

take a pay cut aceitar salário menor

MODEL ANSWERS · RESPOSTAS-MODELO

✓ I currently work as a project coordinator, and I've been in this role for about three years. I've learned a lot about managing people and deadlines, and I really enjoy the variety it brings.

✓ Five years ago, I was studying at university and working part-time in a café. Since then, I've graduated, I've started a proper career, and I've become much more confident about my future.

✓ A few years ago, I decided to turn down a promotion. I had been working towards it for ages, but when the offer came, I realised I wasn't enjoying that path anymore. It was hard, but I don't regret it.

✓ If I could change careers completely, I would become a teacher. I love explaining things and helping people grow, so I think I would find it really meaningful and rewarding.

CONVERSATION · PERGUNTAS DA AULA

What is the hardest part of your work? The hardest part is... / It is difficult when... / I struggle with...

How did you learn what you know today? I learned it by... / Most of it I learned from... / I had to teach myself...

Have you ever changed careers? Would you? I have changed... / I would change if... / I have thought about...

MINHAS FRASES · ESCREVA 3 EXEMPLOS SEUS ANTES DA AULA

Comece com: I started working as... · A normal day starts with...

NOTAS